Annual Report and Donor Honor Roll 2008-2009

THE LEADERSHIP CAMPAIGN
WINONA STATE UNIVERSITY

Thom Kieffer, WSU Foundation Chair

Message from the Foundation Chair

As we embark on a new university school year and a new fiscal year for the WSU Foundation, we are optimistic that our strong leadership will provide great opportunity in the face of strong headwinds. Others may choose to focus on our sluggish economy, high unemployment rates, declining regional student population, and evaporating state funding as limiting factors. They may rationalize that the status quo is good enough, settling for survival instead of striving for success. The WSU Foundation joins the university and its loyal supporters to shatter that way of thinking. At Winona State, volunteerism is thriving. Support for the university remains at historic levels and scholarships granted reached a milestone level of $1 million this year.

"Change is inevitable, growth is optional." Make that essential. These words ring true as the WSU Foundation attacks its expanding role in supporting the mission of Winona State University. Volatile financial markets and increasing financial needs create excitement in today's Foundation environment. Donors can rest assured that our trustees remain vigilant in their commitment to grow and preserve Foundation assets. The current Foundation Board of Trustees has stepped up to tackle growing challenges by extending our membership and our commitment to serve. All board committees are active in carrying out continuous and meaningful work for the Foundation. The full board meets quarterly to set strategic initiatives and re-commit to our mission statement:

We exist to raise general and restricted funds, steward them in perpetuity, and distribute them in ways that collaboratively support the mission of the university. We recognize those who give and we serve as a university advocate.

Our Light the Way capital campaign is going strong and confirming our belief that alumni and friends of Winona State University are energized to make a difference in the lives of students and young children. The Integrated Wellness Complex is taking shape on campus and will be a legacy that impacts our students for generations. The building will be impressive, but the experiences created within its walls will be life changing. Scholarship commitments are steady, but need continuing support from additional pledges and greater annual giving commitments. This phase of our campaign will provide current funding for students experiencing greater financial burdens. Endowed scholarship dollars will build a strong base for generations of future WSU scholars. Attracting and retaining a diverse student population from a shrinking regional universe of eligible candidates demands an increased support system. Foundation scholarships are a key ingredient to educating talented and motivated students who will "change our world."

The most recent phase of the Light the Way campaign to ignite supports the National Child Protection Training Center (NCPTC). The unique relationship between the NCPTC and Winona State University will change the world by preserving life, protecting children, breaking the cycle of abuse, and advocating on behalf of those most precious and vulnerable. I encourage you to take personal initiative to better understand this organization and its incredible mission. The NCPTC continues to shine a national spotlight on Winona State University.

I am honored to serve alongside many committed trustees in walking the mission of the WSU Foundation. With the continued support of our donors, we will continue to make good things happen in support of the university. Your generosity and commitment to Winona State University paves the path for others to walk farther and climb higher.

Sincerely,

Thom Kieffer

Cornerstone Society

In addition to the six annual donor societies, the WSU Foundation created a very special society called the Cornerstone Society. This provides a lasting tribute to donors who, through their ongoing efforts, have enabled the Foundation to become a force in providing support for WSU's academic mission. The Cornerstone Society honor roll occupies a prominent spot in the main corridor of Somsen Hall and salutes benefactors who have made cumulative gifts of $20,000 or more to the WSU Foundation.

1858 Founders Society

The WSU Foundation Board of Trustees established the 1858 Founders Society to recognize those individuals who have made a provision for Winona State through the WSU Foundation in the form of a deferred gift: a will, life insurance, or a life income agreement. The Society exemplifies the importance of will provisions and other deferred gifts to the university and expresses the Foundation's grateful appreciation to individuals who make a future gift in support of the university's mission.

If you would like more information, or if you have made a provision for the Foundation but you have not yet notified the Development Office, call 507.457.5020. All information will be kept in strict confidence.

President's Club

The Winona State University Foundation established the President's Club in 2003 to recognize those individuals who have donated an annual gift of $1,000 or more to the unrestricted sustaining fund. Unrestricted gifts support WSU by allowing the flexibility to direct these funds to the area of greatest impact. Unrestricted gifts address priorities and bring immediate benefits to the university as a whole by supporting scholarships, faculty and curriculum development, academic programming, library collections, and many other critical needs. Members of the President's Club help Winona State continue its commitment to excellence both in education and service.

The following persons have qualified for this annual club for Fiscal Year 2009.

Student teaching is rewarding and demanding. It takes a lot of time to prepare, teach, grade, spend time with students, and more. All three of my scholarships are helping me focus on student teaching this semester without worrying about how to pay for my education. Teachers make all the difference in a child's life, and that's why I can't wait to get into my own classroom and start helping students learn.

Foundation Special Project: Art on the Boat

Peggy Sannerud, associate professor of theatre and dance, used a Foundation Special Projects grant to help fund an innovative learning experience aboard the university boat River Explorer. Scene design students took an overnight trip to observe scenery in terms of color, texture, shape, and composition and then created abstract watercolors. Lighting and sound design students traveled on the boat and kept detailed journals of sounds and lighting conditions. They attempted to recreate those conditions in a theatrical setting. Sannerud said the trips were not only valuable as teaching tools, but that they also served as important team building experiences for the theatre groups.

Foundation Special Project: Bangladesh Outreach

Andy Hamilton, a management information systems and mass communications major, visited Bangladesh with funding from a Foundation Special Projects grant. Andy, who worked with Professor Pat Paulson, used his information technology skills to develop a registration system for the University of Information Technology and Sciences and Dhaka. He also visited rural schools and donated laptops to students in Bangladesh. Cathy Faruque, a WSU professor, helped arrange travel and accommodation. Read Andy's blog entries at: <http://assignmentglobal.wordpress.com>.
